

A schematic diagram of a protein structure. It consists of a horizontal bar divided into six colored segments: cyan (C), magenta (M), yellow (Y), red (O), green (L), and blue (V). Above each segment is its corresponding letter. Below the bar are two horizontal lines, one solid and one dashed, representing a sequence or alignment.