The figure consists of a vertical bar chart on the left and a target diagram on the right. The bar chart has four segments of increasing height from bottom to top, colored black, dark gray, medium gray, and light gray. The target diagram is a circle with concentric rings and a central bullseye, with a small 'c' label next to it.
